JOCKEY'S STORY OF INTEREST HERE

Former Famous Rider Again Wins Success By Using Plant Juice.

Before coming to America and to Salt Lake City, Mr. J. Jillett, whose home is 224 Lucy avenue, that city, made a record as an English jockey. One of the noted derby events he participated in was back in '83, when he rode second horse, 'Pari-dox,' for the Duke of Westminister. It was 10 years later that Mr. Jillett came to Salt Lake City, and he has been there eyer since. Not only he but also Mrs Jillett makes enthusiasendorsements of Plant Puice. Mr.

I have had the stomach trouble and indigestion pretty bad, and I have long been on the hunt for something that would give me relief without any bad after-effects. I used to be stock keeper for the Smith-Bailey Drug company here, but I am now taking life easy. I tried properly, as it was almost impossible all sorts of drugs for my stomach to stop the car when it was so de-trouble and a couple of weeks ago sired. Twin Falls, Ida., Aug. 19 .- After four days of investigation, such light has been shed on the mysterious kill-James H. Nichols, near the Nichols ranch last Friday evening, as to convince the authorities that Nichols first slew the woman and then com-mitted suicide. When the autopsy was performed upon the body Nichols physicians pronounced it almost a physical impossibility for him to have fired all three of the shots which entered his own body.

Sheriff C. C. Nelson of Minidoka county, in which the crime was committed, brought the revolver used by Gerrish, proprietor of a second hand store, as one that he sold to Nichols effect that Nichols had several times threatened to shoot Mrs. Stockslager. The funeral of the young woman was held here today, and the body of Nichols was shipped to the home of his parents in Brown City, Mich.

BORING FOR OIL NEAR BINGHAM

Aug. 19 -- Messrs. Levi, Bartlette and Cowan, the oil experts, who are engaged in extensive work in this vicinity in boring oil and natural gas, will extend their prospecting some distance north at an early date. Mr. Levi has nade arrangements with Christian Olsen of North ward to bore wells on his land, as good indications have been found there by the company's prospectors.

The promoters of the oil and gas wells seem quite encouraged as far as they have gone, and it appears that they are confident of securing a good flow of gas about four miles west of this city. The good prospects have led them to seek a franchise from Brigham City to install a gas ighting and heating system here. The franchise was granted last week, and the company agreed to com-mence work on the installation of the system in the immediate future, and have it ready for operation within

To complete operations, the promoters have sent for additional boring facilities, which will soon arrive from California. It is alleged that with the new machinery a depth of 6000 feet can be reached. In the meantime the people of Brigham City are elated over the prospects of having gas pipes into their homes for both heating and cooking pur-

JORDAN WINS IN CONTEST WITH PARKER

Sait Lake, Aug 20.—Chris Jordan retained his title of champion middle-weight wrestler of the world last night at Saltair when he defeated Archie Parker of Pittsburg in two falls in forty-two minutes and twenty-five minutes, respectively.

The champion obtained both falls with body scissors and half-nelson holds. During the last few minutes of the first fall and in the twenty-five minutes of the second, Jordan had things all blacks are proportionally the second of the second. things all his own way. He clearly showed himself superior to his opponent in every way. Neither man seemed to have anything on his opponent for the first thirty-five minutes of the match.

Only at one time was Jordan seri ously in danger of being thrown Par ker stood him on his head shortly be fore he himself was thrown for the second time, but the champion's London, Aug. 20.—King George has shoulders were not on the mat more seen so much lately with the hand-than a flash of a second. By no means could the referee have follow in his father's footsteps.

She was included in the Goodwood fall count, but the majority of the spectators viewed the matter in a fair light and realized that a decision to Parker for a fall could not possibly be just.

Jordan obtained a similar hold on Parker previously in the match, but the Pittsburger's shoulders did not stay on the mat nor was there any voice of dissension from the audience Fifteen Hundred See Bout.

A crowd of approximately 1500 persons greeted the wrestlers when they entered the ring at 9:35 o'clock, Both men went to their corners and then they were introduced to the spectators by Referee J. A. A. Stanley. Par-ker was given a slightly warmer reception than Jordan, for the fans were in hopes that the eastern men would cure the champion of some of his alleged rough stuff. From the start of the bout both men went at it flercely. Neither was try ing to stall and it could be plainly seen that each wanted to take the measure of his opponent in as short a time as possible. Rough tactics were resorted to frequently and Referee Stanley found it a difficult task to separate the men. At times they al most refused to separate, so desirous was each of giving the other fellow the worst of it. The rough stuff evoked much criticism from the crowd and one follower of Jordan had to be removed from the hippodrome by spe cial officers because of his determination personally to show Parker his disapproval of his work.

Neither man was rougher than the other, but Parker's fighting tactics were very much more evident to the crowd than Jordan's. Several times openly he made passes at Jordan, and once after the two had been brought from the ropes he made three dis-tinct jabs at the champion's body. Jordan held his temper and no prize fighting resulted. Jordan the Master.

Jordan neatly executed the first fall. although Parker made a game effort to break the hold. It was evident then that the champion showed superior skill at the game. Parker is a good wrestler and a game wrestler, but he showed last night that he is not up to Jordan's form. After ten minutes' intermission the men went at it again, both using the same rough tactics and by the passes the men mard with their hands, the bout approached the resemblance of a prize fight. Several times in the second encounter Jordan came near pinning his opponent, but each time The champion's final attempt, the cissors and the same hold with which the first fall was obtained, a half-nelson, however, was secure, and Parker was forced to take his medicine The loser had nothing to say to the crowd regarding his defeat, but when seen privately, he admitted that it had been a tough battle, and added that his main object had been to try to break Jordan of some of his rough Whether he has accomplished stuff. any good or not in this way, Jordan's future matches must determine.
